

CUMBERLAND METROPOLITAN AREA<sup>1</sup>

- The white share of enrollment decreased while black, Asian, Latino, and mixed all increased since 1989-1990.

Figure 1
Public School Enrollment by Race, Cumberland Metro

Note: American Indian is less than 1% of total enrollment. Total CBSA enrollment in 1989 was 10,708. In 2010, total enrollment was 9,022.

Source: U.S. Department of Education, National Center for Education Statistics, Common Core of Data (CCD), Public Elementary/Secondary School Universe Survey Data

<sup>1</sup> This report includes only data from the districts in this metropolitan area that are located in the state of Maryland. The 1999 MSA boundaries included Allegany County.

SETTLE FOR SEGREGATION OR STRIVE FOR DIVERSITY?
 THE CIVIL RIGHTS PROJECT/PROYECTO DERECHOS CIVILES      APRIL 18, 2013

- White enrollment in both urban and suburban schools decreased.
- Black enrollment increased in both urban and suburban schools.
- Asian enrollment quadrupled in suburban schools but increased and then decreased in urban schools.
- Latino enrollment, though still a small proportion, has increased substantially. The Latino share of enrollment increased by 300% in urban schools and 1200% in suburban schools.

Table 1

Public School Enrollment by Race in Urban and Suburban Schools, Cumberland Metro

	Urban Schools					Suburban Schools
	White	Black	Asian	Latino	Other	White	Black	Asian	Latino	Other
Cumberland Metro
1989-1990	95.6%	3.6%	0.4%	0.3%	0.1%	98.0%	1.5%	0.3%	0.1%	0.2%
1999-2000	93.0%	5.3%	0.9%	0.5%	0.3%	97.1%	1.6%	0.8%	0.3%	0.3%
2010-2011	87.7%	6.3%	0.6%	1.2%	4.1%	93.4%	1.9%	1.2%	1.3%	2.2%

Note: Urban schools refer to those inside an urbanized area and a principal city. Suburban schools refer to those inside an urbanized area but outside a principal city. Other includes American Indian students and students who identify with two or more races. Data comprises schools open 1989-2010, 1989-1999-2010, 1999-2010, and only 2010. We apply 2010 boundary codes to all years.

Source: U.S. Department of Education, National Center for Education Statistics, Common Core of Data (CCD), Public Elementary/Secondary School Universe Survey Data